Upper Dublin Public Library
Instructions for Use of Wireless Network

Connecting people and ideas to educate, inspire and strengthen the Upper Dublin community.
UDPL—We're About You!

Upper Dublin Public Library is a free wireless hotspot for Upper Dublin Township's wireless network.

How to Connect to the Network
You do not need passwords or special settings to connect to the Library's wireless network. The network name is UDPL_Guest.

Printing
Printing to the Library's printer is available through our wifi printing service, which you may access on our website at: udpl.org/wireless-printing/.

Limitations and Disclaimers - Please Read!

Library staff may provide technical assistance or computer troubleshooting as defined in our Upper Dublin Public Library Computing Assistance Policy and Waiver. The Library cannot guarantee that you will be able to make a connection.

The Library's wireless network is not secure and you use it at your own risk. The Library recommends that you do not send sensitive or personal information through this network.

The Library is not responsible for the safety of equipment or for laptop configurations, security, or files on your computer. If you need to change any settings to access the wireless network, be sure to write down and save your current settings before you change them.

The Library's Internet and Computer Use Policy and Guidelines forbids users to retrieve or use violent material or sexually explicit material as defined in Title 18 PaCS 5903. Wireless users in the Library are expected to respect the Library's policy. Please review the policy at udpl.org.
